Mr. Drance,

Dear Sir;

As you remarked, a few days ago, when at the house here, you would drop around and see us in a few days again, and those few days having elapsed, we beg to remind you that your presence will be appreciated any tomorrow afternoon, or in other words we would be much pleased to see you. A few friends of Mr. Possett to the number of four, who will be pupils at the school when open, have written him if he knows of any boarding house in the neighborhood of school which he could recommend. Do you Know of any such place?

Hoping we may see you tomorrow (Friday) at 2 at this address. we are

Yours Truly -
E. A. Fossett
